WANTED .- A carrier boy to deliver the INTELLIGENCER in the 8th Ward, (South Wheeling.) Apply at this office. CHANGE OF POSTMASTERS.-W. R. Pierson has been appointed postmaster at Twistville, Braxton county, vice B. C. Pierson, resigned. POSTOFFICE DISCONTINUED.—The postoffice at Graham Station, Mason county has been discontinued, because no on would accept the postmastership. CITY COUNCIL.—An adjourned meeting of the City Council will be held to-mor row night. The consideration of the railroad subscription ordinances is the special object of the meeting.

SALE TO CLOSE TO-DAY.—The sale of the McLure House furniture will close to-day. The Billiard Tables will be sold at 10 o'clock this moraing, and dining room and kitchen furniture at 1 P. M. PERSONAL -We met Capt. J. K. Booth.

the "Barge King" on the street, yester-day. He is here looking after his steamboat interests, and was in fine spirits over the prospect of a good boating stage in

STILL IN PROGRESS .- The sale of the furniture in the McLure House was continued, yesterday. Mr. Jones, the assig-nee, informed us that it would be impossed ble to finish last evening, and that the sale would be resumed at the usual hou this morning. Bargains are yet to be had. We confidently recommend these to the trade and warrant satisfaction. Delay not in securing what you want of

A Toppe ONE -A week or two since, when the zoot was at its maximum here a farmer over in Belmont county started one of his sons to this city for a supply of groceries. The lad lett, and returning much sooner than his father anticipated inquiry was made of him how it came hat he got back so soon. He replied. that he could get no farther than West Wheeling as the ferry boat could not run in consequence of the immense number of to be seen to meet with dead horses in the river—victims of the Call at Shelb's and see it. epizoot in Pittsburgh and Wheeling. As the son had procured the articles sent for, no further questions were asked him.

IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS .- On the third page of our paper this morning will be found the reports and ordinances ordered to be published by the Second Branch of Council at its meeting held Turalay even We ask for them a careful and can did perusal. If any one of our reader can find anything in the shape of a guar auty on the part of the railroad er nies, we would be pleased to have it pointed out. We see no provision made old stand. n the ordinances for representation of the city in either Board of Directors. The papers bear the marks of having been fixed up in a hurry.

Hours Changed.—During the preva-lence of the epizoot here, the railroad company extended the hours for receiving reight, so as to afford our merchants all the relief possible in making their shipments under the peculiar circumstance Now as the zoot tidal-wave has passed over this region and affairs are returning to their normal condition, the Company will hereafter receive freights for points on the main stem, east of Piedmont, and on the Central Ohio until 1 P. M., and for points west of Piedmont until 8 P. M Shippers will please remember these figures and govern themselves accordingly

A SPLENDID FRUIT CAKE TO BE GIVEN way .- Our friend Charlie Behler, the Market street confectioner, who is always getting up some new attraction, has got ten up a magnificent ornamented Frui Cake, which is to be given away at the close of the holidays. Every person who makes a purchase to the amount of one dollar, gets a chance in the cake, and whoever holds the lucky number gets the cake. The cake will be awarded on the 6th of January. Here is a chance for the lovers of good things who have lucky Halford Leices stars. If your don't get the cake you are their grocers. sure to get the worth of your money any-how, as Charlie keeps a stock in his line not excelled by any in the city.

FOR CINCINNATI.-A dispatch was received in this city yesterday, conveying the intelligence that the steamer Andes, Capt Charley Muhleman, would leave Cincinnati to-morrow atternoon, for this below the old stand, where I have opened city. The present stage of water will en-Passengers and shippers will be gratified to hear that communication by river with fore purchasing.

STILL RISING.-The river was rising rapidly at this point, last evening. The marks showed seven feet in the channel.

About noon yesterday, the gorge at Pike in order to make room for He Island gave way, and during the after noon the river was tull of ice from shore to shore. It was so thin, however, as to interfere but slightly with navigation, and will, probably, have entirely disappeared by this morning. The local packets will doubtless make their appearance at the

HANDSOME IMPROVEMENT .- Our friend Charley Behler, the confectioner on Mar-ket street, on yesterday had the unsightly wooden post and dingy transparency in front of his establishment removed, and a handsome iron one, with glass lantern, erected in their stead. Mr. B. purchased the post and fixtures in New York. Others might follow his example, and thus improve the appearance of our
